Pearl Harbor Historic Sites Need Funding To Aid In Circumventing Government Shutdown

Honolulu, HI – You can't put a price on freedom and sacrifice which is why, during this government shutdown, the Pearl Harbor Historic Sites have pledged the funds, up to $18,000 per day, that it costs to operate the Arizona Memorial, part of the WWII Valor In The Pacific National Monument. But they need help to continue providing the daily support.

The Pearl Harbor Historic Sites, the U.S.S. Bowfin Submarine Museum, Pacific Historic Parks, U.S.S. Missouri Memorial, and Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum need your help to cover this cost for a historic, educational monument that visitors to O'ahu save for their whole lives to visit.

FORD ISLAND, HAWAII

Loved ones, families, visitors, people from around the world travel to the Arizona Memorial every day to remember, honor, and pay tribute to those who perished in this devastating attack that catapulted our nation into WWII. The Arizona Memorial is a national cemetery, a tomb for more than 1,100 sailors and soldiers who served aboard the ship. Help us keep this national treasure open.

Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum is located on Historic Ford Island, where bombs fell during the attack on Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941. Walk on the Pearl Harbor battlefield where the attack began, enter the bullet-scarred hangars, see the control tower and aircraft of the battle, including a Japanese Zero and the B-17 Swamp Ghost.

Hear the stories of WWII heroes and their response to the attack that changed our nation and the world. Tour Included, flight simulators and café available.

Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization. Its mission is to steward America's first aviation battlefield of World War II sharing the artifacts, personal stories, the impact and response to the December 7, 1941 attack and the Pacific region battles that followed, honoring those who have defended our freedom so they might educate and inspire future generations.
