Exciting Changes

A Note from our Executive Director, Elissa Lines

Aloha. Hope you are well. We continue to move forward with several gallery changes. We appreciated your feedback on the move of the Pan Am exhibit and agree, we should provide you with advance information to help as you plan for your volunteer service. Next week, the exhibits crew will be inspecting under the Doolittle deck, sanding and painting the wall behind the Wildcat, and removing the framed quilt from our gallery display - it will be placed in curatorial storage. And, as a "heads up," our purchase of the new full motion flight simulators has been finalized - expect this new experience to be positioned by mid-June. If you haven't already, please take a moment to see the process being made on the TBM inside our restoration shop in Hangar 79!

As always thanks for your support,
Elissa
