Weekly Schedules

The schedules for the next two weeks are attached. Please review them and let me know if you will be out on vacation anytime soon.

Volunteer Break Area

We've been advised that the volunteer/docent room will be moved back to Josh's office behind the front desk and the volunteer trailer will be removed. This move is expected to happen after Living History Day which is on September 21st. Please be prepared to secure your personal items for the move and we will follow up with details as they become available.

Bridge Closure

Please note that the bridge will be closed on Wednesday, September 25th from 9:00AM-10:30AM. Please plan your arrival to the Museum accordingly and let me know if you have any questions or issues. Mahalo.

Living History Day 2019

Volunteers Still Needed for Saturday, September 21st

A final reminder that Living History Day will be held next Saturday, September 21st! We have a few volunteer positions still available for those who haven't signed up yet. Please let me know if you are interested in volunteering for this event and I can let you know what positions are still available. Don't forget to let your friends and family know that they can download tickets at: <https://www.smithsonianmag.com/museumday/venues/museum/pacific-aviation-museum-pearl-harbor/>. Hope to see you all there!

Hope to See You Next Weekend!

A Note from our Executive Director, Elissa Lines

Aloha, hope you are doing well. September attendance has dipped a bit but our level of activity remains on the rise. We are preparing for Living History Day - a day that allows us to share our museum with thousands. This year will be even more exciting as we offer open cockpits and introduce our flight simulators to an even greater audience. Here is a "sneak announcement" - in the coming weeks, we hope to receive a bulkhead section of the USS Arizona, a special exhibit to help us better interpret the events and response to the December 7, 1941 attack. Watch for details.

Mahalo for your support,
Elissa
