3rd Anniversary Celebration Thursday, December 3, 2009

“A Night to Remember” Honoring Captain Thomas J. Hudner, Jr., USN (Ret.) A Fundraiser for the Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor

The public is invited to spend an evening at the Museum with military, civic and community dignitaries on historic Ford Island. This Anniversary, the Museum will be honoring Medal of Honor Recipient Captain Thomas J. Hudner, Jr. USN (Ret.) and the evening's Honorary Chair is celebrity Jim Nabors with an evening full of music and entertainment.

Guests will be among the first visitors to get up close and personal with the Museum's four newest aircraft: MiG-15, F-4 Phantom II, F-102A Delta Dagger, and a F-86A Sabre. Guests will participate in an evening of dining, silent and live auction to benefit the Museum's fundraising efforts. Medal of Honor Recipient Thomas J. Hudner, Jr. USN (Ret.) will be the honorary speaker for the evening.

Pacific Aviation Museum is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Its mission is to develop and maintain an internationally recognized aviation museum on historic Ford Island that educates young and old alike, honors aviators and their support personnel who defended freedom in The Pacific Region, and preserves Pacific aviation history.

Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor is located at 319 Lexington Boulevard in Hangar 37 and 79 on Ford Island at Pearl Harbor. Tickets and sponsorships are available online at www.PacificAviationMuseum.org or contact Development Consultant Donna Bebber at 808/441-1006 or 808/741-1041 (cell), Donnab@PacificAviationMuseum.org.
