Pacific Aviation Museum & Battleship Missouri Remain Open for Visitors to Pearl Harbor

Honolulu, HI – In the event of a federal shutdown and closure of the National Parks Service-operated USS Arizona Memorial, the Battleship Missouri and Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor will continue to welcome visitors.

The regular free shuttle buses to the Battleship Missouri and Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor will remain operational, picking up from the Pearl Harbor Visitor Center parking area.

No bags are allowed on the shuttle. Visitors may bring camera, wallet, cell phone, and water bottle on the shuttle.

Tickets for each attraction may be purchased at the attractions, upon arrival, online at PacificAviationMuseum.org, USSMissouri.org, or from Expedia and the tour desks in Waikiki.

The Museum is open 9am to 5pm daily. Call 808/441-1000 or visit www.PacificAviationMuseum.org for more information.
