Remembering The Doolittle Raid April 18th with Wine Under the Wings at Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor

Honolulu, HI – An evening of wine tasting, creative food pairing, jazz entertainment in honor of Jazz Appreciation Month, and a presentation by Col. Jack DeTour commemorating The Doolittle Raid will happen Thursday, April 18, 6:30 to 8:30pm at Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor. Jazz Appreciation Month pays tribute to jazz as both a living and historic music. The evening will feature jazz by Stephen Jones and Dan Del Negro and wines from around the world.

A fundraiser for the Museum, tickets are $100 per person. Tickets and RSVPs are online at PacificAviationMuseum.org. RSVPs must be received by April 11. For more information, 808-441-1004 or SpecialEvents@PacificAviationMuseum.org

According to Executive Director Kenneth DeHoff, “We’re honored to have as our speaker for the event a former B-25 pilot and Museum supporter Col. Jack DeTour. His knowledge of this air raid and stories of the aircraft will make the evening something very special.”

Commemorating the first U.S. air raid to strike the Japanese homeland April 18, 1942. The Doolittle Raid was the only operation in which U.S. Army Air Forces bombers were launched from a U.S. Navy aircraft carrier into combat. The raid significantly boosted American morale and set in motion a chain of events crippling the Japanese war effort.

Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor is open 9am to 5pm daily except Christmas, New Year's and Thanksgiving days, and is accessed by shuttles from the USS Arizona Memorial/Pearl Harbor Visitor Center. Daily, visitors from all over the world view the 35+ aircraft in the Museum's two WWII hangars, see the Ford Island Control Tower and Luke Field, enjoy hands on technology experiences including combat flight simulators, hear moving stories told by aviation docents, and see historic films and video displays.

The Museum Store and Laniakea Café restaurant are unique in their offerings and their 1940s ambiance. Phone (808) 441-1000 or visit www.PacificAviationMuseum.org for tickets and more information. Tickets and a free Flight Simulator coupon are available online.

Pacific Aviation Museum Pearl Harbor is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, which depends on membership and donations, located at 319 Lexington Boulevard, Historic Ford Island, Pearl Harbor, Oahu, Honolulu, Hawaii 96818.
