Articles & Websites

- Pearl Harbor Child A website by Dorinda Nicholson, who was born in Hawaii to a Hawaiian mother and Caucasian father. As civilians, they were living in Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack, and stayed until forced to give up their home after the end of the war. Her website shares books, DVDs and teacher resources that tell the story of the Attack on Pearl Harbor in a way that children can understand the tragic event and the reconciliation, peace and friendship that is possible.
- Dorinda Nicholson Dorinda's website shares the same books, DVDs and resources as Pearl Harbor Child website, but this website also gives instructions on how to connect with Dorinda to be a speaker at your event or in your school. She has been featured on the Today show, CBS News, Hawaii News Now, The Kansas City Star and Fox4KC.com. She is most known for being one of the best to bring a tough topic to children in a way they can understand through speaking events and through her children's books.
